

User Story #	Requirements	Description of Requirement
1	A product can only be bought if it is in stock	A product must be in stock if it can be purchased
1	A user friendly website	Website must be user friendly because with a user friendly design,customers can easily view products and navigate clearly
1	Can only place an order if an account has been created	A user must have created an account before purchasing any product
1	Can request a refund if the order meets the seller's refund policy	Each seller on the shopping platform has there own set of refund policy
1	Need gift code to update gift card balance	A Customer must enter a gift code in order for their gift balance to be updated.
2	Must provide Email Address and delivery address during checkout process	Need user to enter in Email Address and delivery address details prior to payment, can be implemented using an input tag
2	Must have categories corresponding to each product	Each product must belong to a particular category on the website, that way products are organized and customers are able to find products easier.
2	Must select carrier for delivery	Allow user to choose a carrier for delivery
2	Must select type of shipping method	Customer must select type of shipping method they desire in order for order to be processed
4	Order history must be linked to End User	In order to display the order history of the User there needs to be a system which ties together a Users purchases with the Users account.
4	Website must have a Track order status page	In order for customers to utilize their tracking numbers the website must have order status page
1	Add to cart button places product in cart	Displays all of the items that were added in the shopping cart page
2	Must send Order Updates to Email	Integrate in a mailer service to send order updates to user email address
6	Must support cross platform functionality	The online shopping system must function on many operating systems and platforms in order to ensure all types of customers are able to access the website
3	Must be free of any bugs or glitches	System must be free from any bugs or glitches in order to improve website performance and retain customer traffic.
3	Must be able to update cart products	When a user selects an item they wish to purchase the cart must have a quantity of 1 for that particular item at checkout and the quantity can be increased on the cart page during the checkout process.